Norma Berg wins Fair aggregate

A bumper crop of prize ribbons and three section aggregate awards added up to the Elk Point Fair's Grand Aggregate award for Norma Berg this weekend, after a very close race with runners-up Pat Bekker and Rose Doucet. Mrs. Berg was the 1985 runner-up, while Mrs. Bekker was Grand Aggregate winner in 1983, 1984 and 1985.

The Aggregate Award winner received a plaque from Vogel's UFA along with a $50 cash award sponsored for the second year by Westmin Resources. Runner-up awards were donated by Pan-Canadian Petroleum and the OK3 Bakery.

En route to the Grand Aggregate win, Mrs. Berg picked up awards in the Baking, Canning, and Senior Citizens sections, and was runner-up in the House Plants section.

In the Baking section, convened by Deanna Easthope, Mrs. Berg received a gift certificate from the Empress Family Restaurant, presented by Connie Capjack. A set of stainless mixing bowls, donated by Elk Point Co-op added to her prizes in the Canning section, convened by Muriel Holthe. In the Senior Citizens section, convened by Grace Barwick, Irene Magnusson presented the award in memory of her late husband Clifton.

Pat Bekker also collected some very nice aggregate prizes, winning the Elk Point Insurance and Realty award, presented by Paul Stepa, in the Arts, Crafts & Hobbies section convened by Edith Mitchell, and the Capitol Drugs award in the Sewing section convened by Darlene Sereda. Mrs. Bekker was also runner-up in a very close race in the Knitting and Crochet section.

Second runner-up, Rose Doucet, was aggregate winner in the House Plants section, which she convened, winning a selection of plant accessories donated by Macleods. She was also runner-up in the Baking section.

Anne Harris of the Lac Bellevue area took home two aggregate awards, receiving an assortment of glassware from Phil's Hardware & Variety in the Vegetables section, convened by Bea Campbell, and prizes from Albi Electric and Virginia's Hairport in the Flowers section convened by Sharil Baumgardner and Florence Pinder.

Rhonda Pinder was Aggregate winner in the Fresh Fruit section, convened by Muriel Holthe, winning a tote bag from Tags Foods and Gas. Gordon Kuhn topped the Grain and Hay section convened by John Bennett, to win a case of oil donated by John Wozniak Texaco Bulk Station.

Katherine Shymkiw was the winner of the close contest in the Knitting and Crochet section convened by

Mann eyes mayor's chair

While Elk Point incumbent mayor Ed Buck has yet to reveal publicly whether or not he'll be after a second term at the town's helm, oilman Byron Mann has announced he'll be seeking the mayor's seat in this fall's municipal election.

In an interview with the Journal last Wednesday, Mann, manager of Westmin Resources' Elk Point heavy oil operations, said he was contacted by a group of "concerned" citizens urging him to make a bid for the town's top job. And, he said, he has decided to do just that.

"I was approached by some citizens who brought up several key points regarding the town," Mann said. "They are concerned council isn't spending money on the right priorities."

Mann's campaign manager Ollie Fedorus stated in a news release to the Journal that the citizen's main concerns centre on their desire to have a more "responsive council who would ensure that the town budget is being spent efficiently, thriftily, and in the proper priority."

"We consider Mr. Mann's background in engineering, business, economics, management and amateur sports provides a solid foundation for him to perform effectively as mayor," stated Fedorus.

Mann points out that while he has only lived in Elk Point for a year he has worked in the Elk Point area for the past three years and is well aware of the issues facing the town. Employment within the oil industry has given him an insight as to the problems Elk Point experiences both when the industry is booming or is in a slump, as is the current situation.

While Mann doesn't foresee an immediate improvement in the local oil industry he believes Elk Point should be adequately prepared for the "eventual" turnaround in the oil economy.

"The town has to assure plans are prepared for water, natural gas, and roads so when the eventual turnaround comes the town will be ready both planning wise and financially."

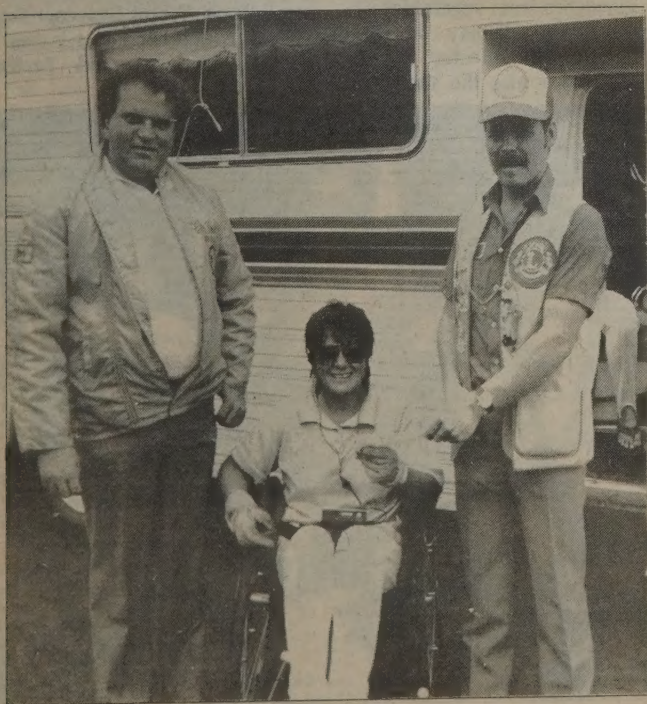

While he agrees the master plan developed by the town and presented in March of this year appears to be "generally" good, he questions just how close the town is to proceeding with the plan.

In addition, Mann disagrees with council's decision to do away with the annual town meeting believing it important residents are provided with the opportunity to express their views and concerns at an organized, general meeting on an annual basis.

While Mann admits he has never sat on a municipal council before he points to his experience in management, business, economics and community involvement as definite assets for any town representative.

Mann, 35, is married with one son. He grew up in Saskatchewan, graduating from the University of Saskatchewan with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Chemical Engineering. After graduation he moved to Calgary and has worked in the petroleum industry ever since. He has been with Westmin Resources for the past five years, the last three years of which were in management positions.

Teens attend seminar

Corey Vogel and Dwayne Lucas from Elk Point, have recently returned from the Rural Education and Development Association's (REDA) Co-operative Teen Seminar. The seminar took place from July 21, to July 27 at Goldeye Centre.

Participants of the Teen Seminar experienced the responsibilities of living in their own community. During the seven days of the program they elected their own government. They planned and carried out their own recreational and social activities, including a banquet, newspaper and fellowship hour. They also ran their own co-operative canteen.

While participants were experiencing community life, instructors at the program led them through sessions on group dynamics, leadership, and communications. Participants also learned the basics of co-operatives and farm safety.

Located near Nordegg in the majestic Rocky Mountains, Goldeye Centre has the advantages of seclusion and beautiful scenery. It provides a natural environment for learning and fun.

The Teen Seminar is the first in 3 levels of Co-operative Youth Programs offered by REDA. The program is celebrating its 25th year of operation in Alberta.

Staff for the program were from the co-operatives in the province, Women of Unifarm and volunteers. Co-operatives, farm and community organizations, recreation boards, and other groups sponsor participants to the program.

Vogel and Lucas were sponsored to the Teen Seminar by U.F.A. Co-op.

vened by Ellen Seward, for an award presented by Laverne Dekergommeaux on behalf of the Toronto Dominion Bank. Colin Bjorkman narrowly outdistanced his sister Tina to take the Junior Fair aggregate award donated by John and Gladys Drobot and presented by convener Gaby Bayduza.

Mary Bennett was a double winner, taking home the aggregate award in the Photography section convened by Lillian Demchuk and Sharon Huhn, of a portrait sitting and 11" x 14" photo donated by Vaitkunas Photo Studio, and another in the Creative Writing section convened by Vicki Brooker and sponsored by the Lakeland Review. A Junior Creative Writing award went to Tina Bjorkman.

Along with the multitude of entries which completely packed the downstairs of the Elks Hall and lined the upstairs as well, fairgoers saw a number of interesting demonstrations and displays. The latest in sewing and knitting machines contrasted with a display by a local handicrafter who produced fine knitted apparel on a simple, hand-made loom. The latest in food dehydrating and breadmaking equipment shared honors with local culinary artisan, Irene Miller, who produced decorative garnishes from vegetables.

A large display of antique equipment collected by Paul Stepa was also the subject of a quiz to see how many the fair visitors could name. Vicki Brooker named 26 out of 42 to win the prize donated by Cliff's Trucking. A photograph contributed by Evelyn Babcock also drew much interest and many guesses as to its subject, which was pebbles sitting on tiny pillars of earth, around which the rest of the soil had washed away to produce these miniature "hoodoos".

Fair Board Chairman Margaret Modin, in her closing comments Saturday, pronounced the fair a success, and attributed that success to the many hands who made light work of the many tasks. Along with the Fair Board members, these helpers included the "very supportive" Town of Elk Point, who loaned truck and workers to set up the hall, Paul Stepa who hauled the styrofoam sheets for the displays, Imperial Lumber who loaned the styrofoam, Lunch Convenor Donna Babcock, Ticket Convenor Bea Williams and her "door ladies", Phyllis Zarowny and Teresa McCuaig.

MANY INTERESTED VIEWERS — Saw a demonstration of a serger, which sews, finishes and trims seams in one operation, at the Elk Point Fair. Demonstrating the ultra-modern piece of equipment was Sharon Jaremko of Vermilion.

Bird, big game regulations changed

EDMONTON — The 1986 Game Bird Regulations and minor changes to the 1986 Big Game Regulations were announced today by the Hon. Don Sparrow, Minister of Forestry, Lands and Wildlife.

For migratory game birds (ducks, geese, coots and rails) the daily bag limit has been reduced to five ducks a day before October 12, after which it increases to six. Possession limits are double the daily limits. This year there will be no maximum restrictions on mallards or other species. This change recognizes the decline of all game bird populations and the need to protect them.

The opening dates of the duck hunting season have been delayed to the following dates: September 12 in Zones 1 and 2 (northern Alberta), September 19 in Zones 3, 4 and 5 (central Alberta) and September 26 in Zones 6, 7 and 8 (southern Alberta). These delays in season opening dates are designed to increase the survival of late hatching broods and molting female ducks, particularly mallards.

"Last year Alberta joined other prairie provinces and various U.S. states in adopting harvest guidelines to reduce the mallard harvest by 25 percent," said Mr. Sparrow. "This year's regulation changes still allow Alberta to accomplish this important objective while maintaining the same recreational opportunities as in the past year. I consider this action to be a strong reflection of Alberta's commitment to enhancing the recovery of North American duck populations that have declined over the past decade due to drought conditions on the Canadian prairies."

Only one significant change has been made concerning upland game birds (pheasants, grouse, partridge and ptarmigan). The pheasant daily bag limit has been reduced from three to two birds per day, and the possession limit reduced from nine to six birds.

"Again the reduced limits are due to the continued loss of upland game bird habitat resulting in the reduction of population numbers," said Mr. Sparrow.

In the 1986 Big Game Regulation, hunters qualifying for special draws will be issued a paper tag instead of a metal tag.

"We have introduced the paper tag to assist in speeding up the licence issuing process," said Mr. Sparrow. "This form of tag has proven to be very popular and cost effective in other jurisdictions."

Instructions for using the new paper tags can be found on the back of the licence.

"The big game regulations have also been amended to provide flexibility for special licence draws in zones having high wildlife populations that require increased harvest to maintain the vitality of these populations," said Mr. Sparrow.

Community effort

Elk Point Fair was once again an overwhelming success. It just keeps getting better every year.

However, this should not be a surprise to anyone, considering the support the entire community gives to this yearly celebration of talent and productivity.

Prizes are a big part of a fair, and ours is no exception. Nineteen local businesses and individuals contributed cash or merchandise awards this year. But just as important are those whose contributions were more behind the scenes — labor and loaned materials for the displays — as well as by those who gave their time and talents to entertain fair visitors with demonstrations of various kinds.

The efforts of the Fair Board were, as usual, many and tireless, not only on the two days of the Fair itself, but during preparations which have been in the making since the winter months — in fact, practically since the day after the 1985 Fair!

The efforts of the exhibitors were also many, and it certainly appears that many of them also started to work the day after last year's fair to get so many entries produced and collected for this year. Altogether, the exhibits were high in quality and plentiful in quantity.

The hardest workers of all were Margaret and Lawrence Modin. Although they tend to discredit their efforts, we of the community know better! Thanks to them both for the late nights and early mornings they put in to make the fair run smoothly and to have everything going according to plan.

All in all — an excellent fair, which has many of us thinking that "maybe next year" we, too, will join the ranks of exhibitors.

Thanks again to all those who helped to make the 1986 Elk Point Fair a success with their efforts.

Going fast

Just eleven more days of August, thirteen days before school begins — where has all the summer gone?

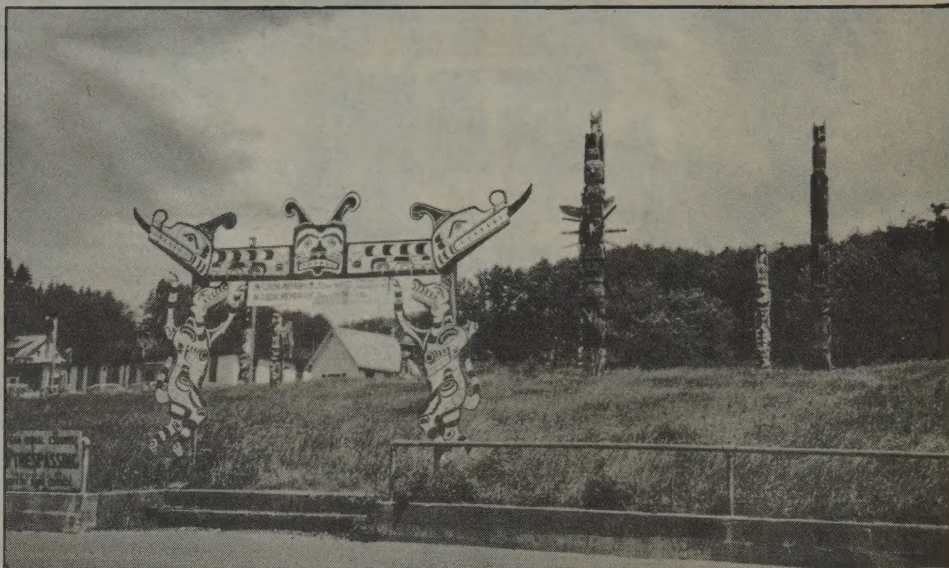

Two months have swept by incredibly fast, in spite of the fact that the rainy weeks in early July seemed like they would never end.

We've had parades, celebrations, fairs, rodeos and family reunions. We have had haying-days and holidays, sunburns and (a few) Saskatoons, mud puddles and mosquitoes — even a flood!

And now, it's nearly over. Harvest is not far away, the crops are turning golden, as is the odd leaf, gardens are bursting with produce and stores with school supplies and back-to-school clothing.

But cheer up — according to the calendar, we have another thirty-one days (thirty-two counting today) before the official arrival of autumn.

Let's make the most of it!

Alberta Trails

Totem poles of Alert Bay

By Irene Magnusson

Alberta's trails can take you many places, but nowhere that I know will you find a place like Alert Bay. Alert Bay is a small town on the south coast of Vancouver Island off the northern tip of the island on the eastern side. It can be reached only by boat or air. Promoted in tourist literature as the "Home of the Killer Whale", Alert Bay is also famous for its "tallest totem pole in the world", and for the other totem poles on its burial grounds. My visit to Alert Bay was July 3 of this year.

The Nimpkish Indian Reserve covers a good part of the island, which is about three miles long and a half mile wide. Fishing is the main industry, with a good bit of thought given to the tourist trade. Visitors from far and near come to see the elaborately carved and painted totems and the art work and artifacts in the Umista Cultural Society's Museum / Library.

We went to the museum first, where there were fine displays of Kwakiutl Indian art, carved masks, brightly painted, exquisitely woven baskets, ceremonial headdresses, and many other objects of interest.

Here was displayed trappings of Tsunokwa, the "Wild woman of the Forest" along with her husband Hamatse, creatures of the Kwakiutl folk lore, whose chief claim to fame (or infamy) was to catch children who didn't behave themselves, and eat 'em alive.

My brother-in-law, Jim Lyon, whose mother was a Kwakiutl, told me this story, and the spelling of the names, so I know it is authentic lore of the area. Also in the adjoining library were numerous books on the lives, art, history and ways of the Kwakiutl tribes.

The museum curator took a group of us across a short lawn to a tiny church, now a museum in itself. St. George's Chapel was built as a memorial to a benefactor of the Columbia Coast Mission in 1925, next to the Alert Bay hospital. No longer used regularly now, the tiny church is displayed to visitors, such as my sister, her husband and myself, when we come calling. Very tiny, it might seat about 20 persons. The inside is well appointed, with fancy windows, and an altar, with a marble font on a stand in the corner.

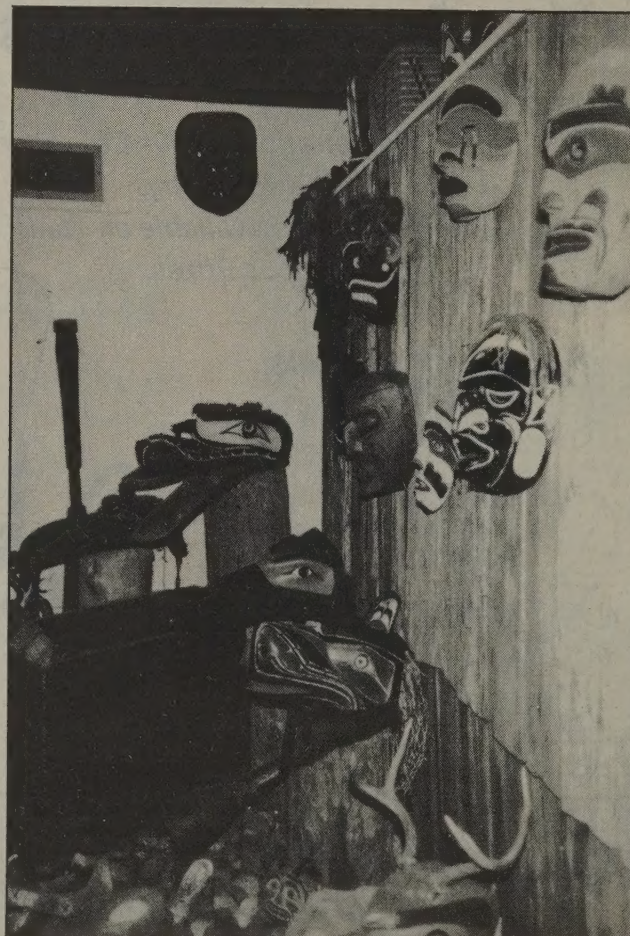

Next to the museum is the Nimpkish Burial grounds, gate guarded by a pair of brightly painted killer whales, together with a "No Trespassing" sign. On this grassy hillside are some dozen or more carved and painted totems, marking the graves of those departed, and telling the tales of the Indian's long association with creatures of the wilds, and of the imagination. Gravestones rise through the long grass here and there among the feet of the totem poles.

Alert Bay, with about 1200 population, is spread along a sandy beach, with buildings rising above each other up a hillside. The scenery is gorgeous, sparkling water with mountains beyond, boats moored or moving over the waves, towering trees above, and, the day of my visit, clear bright skies.

The hospital at Alert Bay is interesting, in that a portion (most) of it was moved to the island from Port Hardy, following the war. It had been built to serve the Armed Forces stationed there during World War II, and since both my sister and her husband served there at that time, they were eager that I see it. With 39 beds, it is a good-sized facility, and the inside is as bright and neat as the outside. A friendly nurse-receptionist pointed out its major amenities, and my sister recalled that her children were all born within its comforting walls.

I, the landlubber, take a rather dim view of a ferryboat ride on my way to the hospital, but they, who have grown accustomed to it, think nothing of it. Just part of life on the B.C. west coast.

The average rainfall on Cormorant Island is 60 inches annually, the temperature averages 75 degrees Fahrenheit in summer, 35 in winter. Not a bad place to live, I'm sure the natives would say, but very different from our Alberta towns.

Out our way

By Mildred Dunham
Ferguson Flats Correspondent

For the people who are wondering and have been asking, "where have you been?", well, mostly in the hay meadows since the sun came out a couple of weeks ago.

I managed a trip out Camrose way with a load of goats. I feel that there should be a way to market meat goats without having to drive across Alberta to find a buyer.

This was a summer with lots of visitors, people going to Expo and various other places. I just managed to take in Elk Point Fair for the first time and even managed to bring home a ribbon.

Grannies Neat Junk had a grand opening on the 16th which was well attended. The kids had fun "fishing" while the adults looked for bargains and poked their names in the "draw" boxes. The lucky winners were Nicky Bugera of Derwent for the adult prize and Lee Keith of Elk Point won the cuddly Teddy packsack for the children's prize.

Ferguson Flats are now trying to make up for lost time. There will be a shower party for Debbie Kummets on Aug. 20 at 7:30 p.m. All friends and relatives are invited. Paper or cleaning product gifts would be appreciated but not necessary.

Ed and Ella Hillebrand will be celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary on Aug. 24th at 3 p.m. at Ferguson Flats Hall. All friends and family are invited.

Last but not least, Ferguson Flats will try once again to have their annual picnic for this year, weather permitting. This will be their third and final attempt for the year, probably the only one to be held at the end of summer, the 31 of August. Come and get in on the ball games, contests, etc.

There will also be a local farm sale for Olive Nelson this Sat. 23 of Aug. This will be auctioned by our local auctioneer, Walter Skolarchuk.

FISHING FOR PRIZES — Every youngster attending the Grand Opening at Granny's Neat Junk got a prize from Granny's fish pond. Front and centre is Bo James Tilley, who suggested that his grandmother, Elsie Tilley, should call her second-hand store "Granny's Neat Junk".

Dewberry Mini-Fair success

By Shirley Osinchuk
Clandonald Correspondent

The Dewberry and District Mini-Fair, sponsored by the Dewberry Horticultural and Agricultural Societies was held Saturday, Aug. 16 in the Dewberry Arena and Hall.

Before the Exhibit Hall opened, Bob Braithwaite gave us a tour of the Dewberry Valley Museum. The building was the original Dewberry Hall, built in 1913. Mr. Braithwaite, along with Wilfred Matheson, Joe Philbin and Philip Porter have set up an outstanding collection of pioneer artifacts and relics of the Frog Lake massacre period. We saw a wind-up toy which still works, brought from Ontario in 1918 by Mrs. Hodgson. Much more time is needed to really appreciate everything there.

At 3 p.m. the exhibits were open to the public. The wide range of excellent entries is evident from this list of prize-winners:

1. Most points in Homemaking - donated by Greenlawn Goodwill Club - won by Eileen Frey.
2. Most points in Horticulture - donated by Dewberry Woodworks - won by June Fanthorpe.
3. Most points in Horticulture by a club member - donated by Horticulture Club - won by Eileen Frey.

4. Adult exhibitor winning most points in fair - donated by Credit Union - won by Eileen Frey.
5. Junior exhibitor winning most points in fair - donated by Riverton Ladies Club - won by Karen Hiltz (also won last year).

6. Best quilt prize - donated by Den-nill's Garage - won by Effie Matheson.
7. Overall pet show winner - donated by Jean's Beauty Boutique - won by Clint Garnier and Aaron and Jennifer Hansen.

8. Most points in Hobby Crafts - donated by N.E. Jones - Adult winner - Lynn Blacklock; 14 - 16 years - Twila Smith; Junior - Cote Trach.
9. Pre-school Horticulture - donated by Mary Maltais - won by Marilyn Hiltz.
10. Junior Horticulture - donated by Horticulture Club - won by Karen Hiltz.

11. Homemaking - 10 and under - Marilyn Holmen; 16 and under - Karen Hiltz.
12. Junior Sewing - Crissie Trach.

Also at 3 p.m. the Pet Show began in the arena. Cages of cats, kittens, rabbits, birds and chickens were judged by Iris Hodgson. Cote Trach, Mary Kozak, David Haney, Adam Dobranski, John Kozak, Marilyn Holmen, Owen and Marilyn Hiltz, Gina Fleming, Landon Bowman, John Kozak, Mark Kozak, Gladys Elliott, Danielle Walker and Barbara Elliott brought their pets in nice cages.

Although only four dogs were entered, they were in a variety of classes. Mrs. Hodgson used the classes to teach the young showmen a great deal about how to show their pets.

The "Fastest Eating Dog" class offered canned dog food donated by the Dewberry Co-op to the three dogs entered. "Duke", a Golden Lab, shown by Ashley and Andrew Larson ate his in two gulps, then politely waited to see what the others would do. "Tiny" and "Luko" were not

The Pork Producer's draw for a cookbook was won by Jada Anderson. Exhibits were left for viewing until 7 p.m.

Well done, Dewberry Horticultural and Agricultural Societies. It was another successful Mini-Fair.

Dewberry News Roundup

By Cliff Cunningham
Dewberry Correspondent

Bill Brock is in the Vermilion Health Care Complex for a check up. Win Curtis fell and broke her hip and was taken to an Edmonton hospital. She is now in the Vermilion hospital. We all hope both of you will be back in Dewberry soon.

Robert Brett spent a week with some of his relatives at Spruce Grove. Robert and Roger Elliotts trucking and others are working on the foundation part of the new Co-op store in Dewberry.

Marge Cunningham was taking therapy treatments at the East End Clinic this last week. Doris Spicer came and washed clothes, also picked our peas and beans for Marge to can or put in the freezer.

A church service will be held in the Dewberry School every Sunday in August with Bob Dybvig as speaker at 10:30 a.m. Our United Church minister Ted Norris and family have gone to Alaska for their holidays.

Don't forget the Dewberry mini-fair on August 16. Clandonald Fair started off with a pancake breakfast, a long parade after everyone had their fill of pancakes. I took 22 pictures of the parade and I didn't get all of them.

Dewberry Senior Citizens annual potluck supper was held at the Jubilee Park Sunday August 10th with about 35 turning out for a get-together. There were some others from Dewberry at the Park also. It was a very nice evening and everyone enjoyed their outing. I took my horseshoes and darts along so they could work off some calories after a large meal of different kinds of food.

Marge and I, also others from Dewberry, went to Lillian and Fred Goddards' 45th wedding anniversary at their home south of Clandonald. A very large crowd showed up to wish them many more years of happy married life. Shirley Osinchuk, the Clandonald news reporter, will have a write-up about it. Shirley and I are kind of working together with the Clandonald and Dewberry news.

There was a consignment auction sale in the Dewberry Hall Saturday

August 9, with a good crowd turning out, with Garnier Auction Services doing a good job. I was at the Clandonald fair the same day and missed the sale. So many different things going on each weekend.

This weekend is the Dewberry mini-fair, also Susie and Vernon Nelson's 25th Wedding anniversary at Clandonald. Our weather has been good this last week with not much rain and from 45 above to 80 above degrees F.

We're going to Act on your ideas

Your municipal government is involved in much of your everyday life. Many of these activities fall under a variety of provincial legislation. While improvements are made constantly, it's been a while since the last major revision.

In the next year and a half we will be putting together many of these changes, with existing legislation, into a new Municipal Government Act.

But, first, we want your ideas.

Whatever opinions or suggestions you may have on any aspect of municipal government will be looked at by the Municipal Statutes Review Committee.

Send your comments as soon as possible, in writing, to:

Provincial aid for farms, small businesses

By John Drobot, M.L.A.
St. Paul

There were three important announcements made in the Alberta Legislature last week, that may directly benefit you.

The Farm Credit Stability Fund Act has been passed. This program provides 9 per cent loans for 20 year terms to families and corporations. The following are the key elements of this program:

1. Maximum Loan Amounts
 - $200,000 per farm family
 - $600,000 for partnerships or corporations based on number of farm families actively involved
 - these limits will include loans owing to AADC
2. Loan Term
 - 20 years, unless the borrower declares a shorter term is in his best interest and requests a shorter term. In any case, loan term will not be shorter than 10 years.
3. Repayment Options (to be agreed between the borrower and lender)
 - the borrower will have a choice between equal blended principal and interest payments, or equal principal payments
 - borrower may prepay in whole or in part any time without penalty
4. Interest Rate
 - 9% per annum
5. Loan Purposes
 - to refinance or consolidate farm debt
 - to acquire, construct or improve land, buildings, farm machinery and equipment
 - to acquire breeding livestock

The program will not apply to the acquisition, construction or improvement of residences (except where purchased as part of acquiring a farm) or for acquisition of cars or light trucks.

6. Lending Criteria
 - the main lending consideration is that the borrower will have to demonstrate ability to repay the loan
7. Government Loan Guarantees
 - the Province of Alberta will share the risk of loans made under the program with lenders by providing appropriate guarantees

The Small Business Term Assistance Fund Act has also been passed. This $750 million program is very similar to the Farm Credit Stability Program. Key elements of the Small Business Term Assistance Plan will be as follows:

1. Eligibility
 - Any form of profit-seeking business is eligible: proprietorship, partnership, corporations and co-operatives. To be eligible a business must:
 - have fewer than 100 employees
 - have annual gross revenues of less than $5 million or gross profit of less than $1 million

- derive at least 50% of revenue from active business income.
2. Maximum Loan Amounts
 - $150,000 per small business, including loans made under the program to associated businesses.

3. Loan Term
 - 10 years, unless the borrower declares a shorter term is preferable and request a shorter term. In any case, loan terms will not be shorter than 3 years.

4. Repayment Options (to be agreed between the borrower and the lender)
 - the borrower will have a choice between equal blended principal and interest payments, or equal principal payments with interest being paid on the declining balance
 - borrower may prepay in whole or in part any time without penalty
 - borrower must repay in full upon discontinuance of the business

5. Interest Rate
 - 9% per annum

6. Loan Purposes
 - to refinance or consolidate business debt

- to acquire, construct or improve land, buildings, furniture and fixtures, machinery and equipment, tenant improvements, or other business assets.

The program will not apply to the acquisition of personal use items (e.g. recreation vehicles, recreation property, etc.).

7. Lending Criteria
 - the main lending consideration is that the borrower will have to demonstrate ability to repay the loan.

8. Government Loan Guarantees
 - the Province of Alberta will share the risk of loans made under the program with lenders by providing appropriate guarantees.

Application forms and program brochures are currently being prepared.

The Farm Fertilizer Price Protection Plan has been extended for another year. This plan provides grants of $50 per tonne of nitrogen and $25 per tonne of phosphate in fertilizer purchased between August 1, 1984 and July 31, 1987. To date, 44,000 applications have been received and $30 million has been paid out. The average payment made to a family farm over the life of this program has been $950.

These have been three major announcements, which may directly effect you. If you have any questions or concerns about these programs, please give me a call. I can be reached in St. Paul at 645-2668, or by calling Edmonton at 427-1833. Feel free to use the RITE line.

NEWLY WEDS — Maynard and Karen Swedgan are shown following their western-style wedding in Elk Point last month.

Western wedding for Gallagher, Swedgan

A unique, western-style wedding was solemnized in Elk Point on Saturday, July 19, 1986, when Karen Gallagher became the bride of Maynard Swedgan.

The bride, daughter of Jim and Janet Ducklow of Kamloops, B.C., was attired in a white, lace-trimmed western blouse and 3/4 length western skirt, with a white western headpiece and veil and pale grey western boots. She was attended by maid of honor Debbie Callaghan of Kamloops, B.C. and bridesmaids Penny Poitras of St. Paul, sister of the bride, and Diane Swedgan of St. Paul, sister of the groom. All three attendants wore blouses, skirts and boots identical to the bride's, except in a shade of baby blue.

The groom, son of Clifford and Pat Swedgan of Old Style Ranch, Elk Point, was attended by best man George Stratford of St. Paul and groomsmen Dean Hoover, formerly of Saskatchewan, and Larry Fialkowski of Lloydminster. The four were dressed alike in baby blue western shirts with white piping, white bandanna ties, blue jeans and cowboy boots, with a pale grey cowboy hat for the groom and black hats for his attendants.

Following the ceremony, a dinner and dance were held at Armistice Hall for family and friends, with western decorations and lots of good western music.

Congratulations and best wishes for a long and happy married life to the Swedgans!

The "Back to School" signs are everywhere. Greenfeed, hay and silage are being put up, and the weather is just right.

The Horseshoe Tournament winners at the Clandonald Country Fair were: Harry Butler and Denis McCormack, first; Margaret Bardoe and Neil Finley, second; George Convey Senior and George Convey Junior, third.

Sunday, Aug. 10, Fred and Lillian

Goddard entertained many friends on their lawn in celebration of their 45th anniversary.

On August 16, Susie and Vernon Nelson entertained friends and relatives in the Clandonald Hall, to celebrate their 25th anniversary. Congratulations and best wishes to Goddards and Nelsons.

Welcome to baby Jordan Grant Butz, born on Aug. 15 to Theresa and Jerry Butz. Jordan's proud grandparents are Shirley and Harry Grant of Clandonald and Blanche and George Butz of Landonville.

Dates for next week: Sun. Aug. 24, the Elk Point and District Light Horse Association Poker Rally. Grant Asmus can be reached at 741-2124 for details. Registration begins at 12 noon. There will be signs posted for directions.

The Local Advisory Board meets at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, Aug. 26 in the school. If you have questions about school this year, come to this meeting.

School starts at Clandonald and Vermilion on Thursday, Aug. 28.

Earlier this month the members of the Catholic church held a farewell evening for Father Marion Strankowski who has gone to Lamont. Father Stan Blazkowski has come from Thorsby to be the parish priest.

The Rusylvia Slowpitch Tournament on Sat. and Sun., Aug. 16 and 17, hosted thirty-two teams (with eleven more on stand-by). The two Rusylvia teams played off for first in the A event with the Rusylvia Rioters winning first and Eddie and the Cruisers placing second. All the Rioters' games were close in score, three games going into extra innings.

In the B event, the St. Paul Stingers won first and the Ryley Trucking team, second.

Congratulations, Rusylvia community, on a very successful ball season.

Mayor welcomes golfers

Dear Golf Tournament Participant:
It is my pleasure to extend on behalf of Council a warm Elk Point and 24, 1986.

As most residents of Elk Point know, golfing is a favourite past time of mine. I know at such a tournament there will be many a tall golf tale shared.

"The true sign of an avid golfer, is one who makes a six, yells four, and marks down five!"

I hope you enjoy playing our course in this year's tournament. Plans are being finalized at this time to redesign the course and with the planned improvements, I feel the course will become one of the most enjoyable courses to play in north eastern Alberta.

I would like also to take the opportunity to congratulate the tournament organizers for their fine efforts in preparation and organizing the 3rd Annual Elk Point Oilmen's Golf Tournament. All signs point toward a well attended, successful and enjoyable tournament.

My best wishes for a low score and a pleasurable weekend.

Yours truly,
Ed Buck, Mayor
Town of Elk Point

Welcome from Chamber of Commerce

Dear Golfers:

On behalf of the Elk Point Chamber of Commerce, it is my pleasure to welcome the participants to the Third Annual Oilmen's Golf Tournament on August 23 and 24.

I would especially invite all the out-of-town visitors to stop by the Chamber's Tourist Information Booth on Highway 41 and sign our guest book, and also pick up some of the literature about the beautiful and activity-filled Lakeland.

Sincere congratulations to the organizers of the tournament for their fine job of preparation for the tournament again this year.

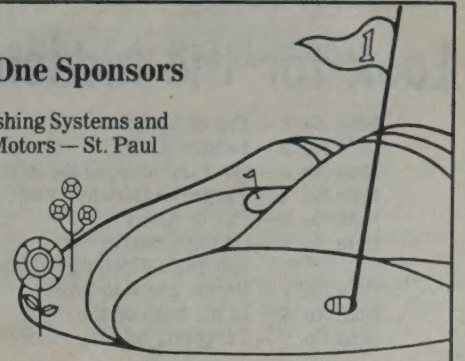

The best of luck to you all!

Summer playground

The children registered in the Summer Playground are enjoying the summer weather at last!

The trip to the Vermilion Mini-Olympics was a great success. The children enjoyed the many activities, especially the swimming in the outdoor pool at the end of the day. On Wednesday, July 13 the children in the afternoon session went on a field trip to Whitney Lake. The swimming was fun and luckily the "itch" did not surface.

On Friday, July 15 the morning group began the day by going to Muriel Lake. The weather soon turned cold and rainy so we returned to the Community Services Centre and spent the remainder of the day indoors playing games.

On Tuesday, August 19, the afternoon session visited the Windsor Salt Plant. The children and the leaders found the tour very interesting and informative. A tour of the RCMP station is planned for August 20 - Laurie Shmyr has been kind enough to organize this for both the morning and afternoon sessions.

Since this is our last week, we are having a wrap-up party on Thursday, August 21. The summer has been very successful. Special thanks to all the children for participating and the support we received.

MARATHONER MEETS LOCAL MS VICTIM — Linda Cohen chats with Gerald Stults during her Elk Point visit.

Marathoner wheels into Elk Point

Multiple sclerosis marathoner Linda Cohen wheeled her low-slung, hand-powered wheelchair into Elk Point right on schedule Friday afternoon, despite strong sidewinds and a losing battle with the steep hill on the north side of the river.

"The wind really pushed me around!" commented the sunburned Ms. Cohen, who admitted that the hill had been more than her match, "although I have climbed some really good ones," including a very steep incline out of the Battle River valley near Duhamel, along her way.

The 35 year old multiple sclerosis victim has been on the road since Sunday, June 1, and has already passed the halfway mark on her 3000 kilometer trek aimed at raising funds for research and aid for sufferers of this debilitating disease. "We're at the 1603.2 kilometer mark right now," said her travelling companion Val Markham, who creeps along behind the wheelchair in a motorhome donated by Hunter's RV Sales of Edmonton and emblazoned with banners proclaiming "Slow moving vehicle — wheelchair ahead" and "Linda Cohen — Marathon for Multiple Sclerosis."

Ms. Cohen was welcomed to Elk Point by Tad Reed and Ron Smith of the Elk Point Lions Club, and was presented with a cheque from the Club. Lions Clubs throughout Alberta are providing manpower for soliciting donations for the marathon.

A further donation will be forthcoming from the Elk Point Lioness Club, which past president, Karen Reed, said was delayed by the absence of president, Sylvia Kleeberger, who is on vacation. A number of individual donations were also presented during the Elk Point stop.

The donations are still far from the $1 million goal, but Ms. Cohen says they are "gaining momentum" from the beginning of the trip, since the public has found out "just how serious we are about this".

A fellow MS sufferer, Gerald Stults of Elk Point, made the cross-town trip from the Heritage Lodge on his motorized tricycle to visit with Ms. Cohen. Mr. Stults has been avidly following the marathon on television and in the paper since the very start, said his daughter, Better Lou Vankosky.

The marathoners enjoyed a break from motorhome living with an overnight stop at a local motel, courtesy of Tad and Karen Reed of Elk Point Esso, before Saturday's departure for St. Paul on the next leg of the trip.

Best wishes for the next 1396.8 kilometers, with lots of downhill runs and many bountiful donations to a courageous lady and her assistant.

BETTER BUY ALBERTA — Hamper draw winner was Roy Findlay of Dewberry, who accepts his prize of Alberta-made foods from Carol Farkash.

Sports groups to receive grants

Marwayne Minor Ball Association and Clandonald Soccer and Softball Clubs are among twelve amateur sport groups to receive funding from the Alberta Sport Council in the third quarter of 1986.

Marwayne Minor Ball will receive $2300 to assist the association in purchasing a pitching machine, while the Clandonald clubs will be given $1500 toward the purchase of various equipment. A total of $38,544 will be provided to groups in the zone.

This funding is to be used for projects which will assist local sports groups to develop. Any group wishing assistance of this type must fit within the Sport Council's guidelines and go through an application process.

Elk Point crop report

August 15, 1986

There has not been any crop damage this past week due to high temperatures, lack of rainfall, excess rainfall or snowfall.

The general date swathing will start is August 29 and the general date combining will start is September 15.

The estimate percentage of swathing completed is 5% for Fall Rye.

The estimate percentage of each crop which is currently ripening or ripened is 15% for Hard Red Spring Wheat, 35% for Barley and 40% for Canola.

The estimate average yield per acre in kilograms based on total acreage is 1100 kg for Hard Red Spring Wheat, 1089 kg for Winter Wheat, 1234 kg for Oats, 1742 kg for Barley, 1016 kg for Fall Rye and 454 kg for Canola.

Assuming favorable harvest weather, the estimate percentage of each grade of grain which may be harvested is:

- A. Hard Spring Wheat: 2 CWRS - 5%, 3 CWRS - 80%, Can. Feed - 15%.
- B. Barley: 1 Feed - 100%
- C. Canola: 1 Canada - 80%, 2 Canada - 20%.

The crops are still looking very good with warm weather still needed to advance the crop. As the summer advances the risk of frost becomes more apparent. Two to three weeks of frost free weather would greatly improve the quality of the upcoming crop.

Each summer, rural residents of the County of St. Paul vie for the annual Farm Beautification Awards. Nominations are accepted by the county from neighbors and this year a total of six homes were considered for the prestigious prize.

Judging of the nominees began earlier this month in three categories: acreages, farmsteads 14-years-old and under and farmsteads over 14 years. As always the competition was close and the judges decision a tough one.

"As always, it was very close," says Kirsty Piquette just before revealing the winners. "The competition was very good this year and I don't envy the judges having to choose one over the other."

The judges for this year's Farm Beautification Awards were Dupont chemical representative, Sonia Matichuk; District Agriculturalist from Smoky Lake, Grant Gillund; and Colleen Pierce, Bonnyville's District Home Economist.

After a full day of viewing the yards of the nominees, taking into account the lay-out of the farm, gardens, lawns, farm buildings and, of course, the home itself, the three out-of-county judges conferred and made their decision.

In the acreage category, this year's Farm Beautification winners are Harry and Anne Palinka. In the under 14 year farmstead, congratulations to Victor and Lucille Yushchysyn of Elk Point and in the over 14 year category, top honors went to Ben and Yolande MacMillan.

Each winning family will receive a gate sign bearing their name and the year they won the Farm Beautification Award. The awards will be officially presented at a special luncheon held by the county some time in October.

The Farm Beautification Awards, over the years, have prompted a growing pride in the hearts of county residents. The awards honor land owners that show concern for the environment they create and help, in its own small way, to make the County of St. Paul a more attractive place to live and farm.

Congratulations to this year's winners and keep in mind your neighbors when nomination time rolls around again next year.

FARMSTEAD FAMILY — Victor and Lucille Yushchysyn and their two boys, David and Michael, spent a great deal of time trimming and planting this summer and were rewarded for their efforts by being awarded the Farm Beautification plaque in the under 14-year-old farmstead category. The Yushchysyn home is located west of Elk Point.

4-H Saddle slickers

By Shaun Blize
Club Reporter

The Elk Point 4-H Saddle Slickers called a meeting to order on July 17 at the home of the Blizes, with five members in attendance. We talked about making project books and ran over the events we've done so far.

On July 24 we held a general meeting, with seven members attending. We talked about the Use Respect signs. A discussion was held about holding a clinic possibly August 5. We discussed more about our Achievement Day being held September 14 at the home of Jackie Aarbos.

August 5 we held a Horse Clinic, which ran all day. Fourteen people showed up, from Pee Wee to Grandparents. There were a variety of horses: Quarter horses, Arabian horses, Thoroughbred horses, and mainly Grade horses. Thanks to Marian Ryan from Dewberry for running the clinic. She showed us the techniques of training a horse. Everyone had a great time despite a few incidents such as a horse slipping and throwing his rider or another horse kicking up his heels instead of loping.

August 13 started in the arena at the home of Jackie Aarbos. Eight members in attendance, six on horses and two on foot. Working with the horses, Jackie taught us what must be done in the class of halter showmanship. We discovered we must really be on our toes to be in the right place at the right time, ourselves as well as our horses. Then we went to the barn to saddle the horses and went riding. While riding we reviewed the techniques we were taught at our clinic August 5. We also learned what we have to do in the class of Western Pleasure.
